- Looking at Block Scheduling

There has been a great deal of discussion and exploration over the last several months regarding the block scheduling option for Central Davis Junior High. Block scheduling was brought up at our Joint Staff Study Committee after a request to visit the topic was made by a group of teachers. General agreement was to start looking into the process and gather data with further discussion at our Middle Level Task Force that reviews and recommends the various programs for CDJH. Additional discussion is taking place in our curriculum departments and community council. These discussions are resulting in various teachers and community members making visits to several schools in Davis, Alpine and Granite Districts to review the seven-period schedule versus an eight-period block (similar to the high schools).

Our efforts are focused on reviewing and informing all stakeholders (teachers, parents, community, students and district officials) and solicit feedback during this process. To provide additional information on block scheduling, CDJH is holding several open forums for all stakeholders to attend and discuss this type of schedule. Open forums are scheduled on the following dates:
