STAND FOR MORE

Northridge HS demonstrates what it means to STAND FOR MORE:

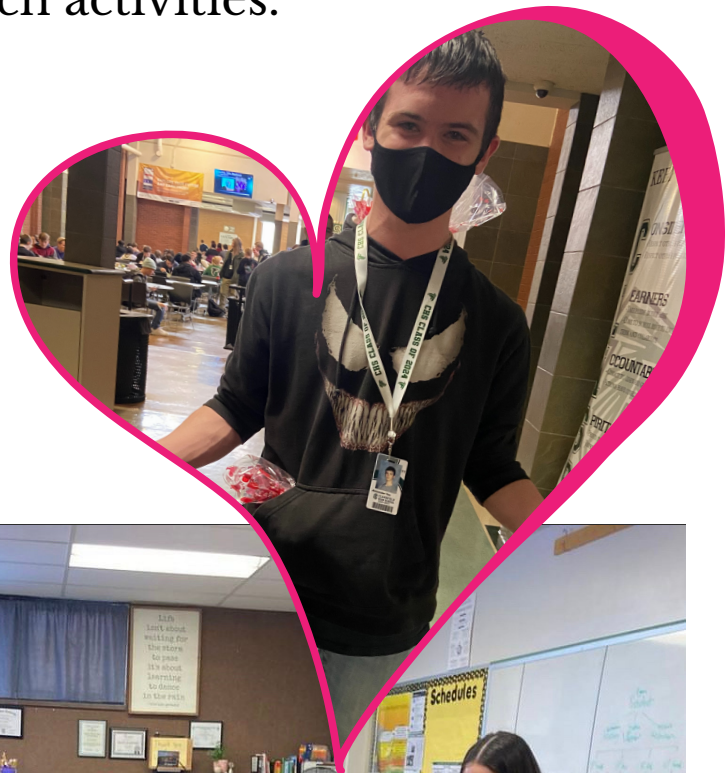

"This project is a representation of stand 4 more. People of different races, nationalities, and ethnicities come together to build up a more inclusive community with characteristics of one's individual. We shared a story to tell people that they have a part into something big." - Heidy Velzquez

"El mural representa todas las banderas de nuestros paises y que cada persona apporto un muñeco demostrando que todos podemos lograr algo , que con un granito de arroz podemos construir algo gigante" - Lisa Menchu

"The art project we did meant to me mostly community and connection. In connection with the LIA theme, I think it also means how we stand for more when we help other people like when we go tutoring and helping little kids learn." - Pablo Carrasco

VALENTINE'S DAY

The Valentine's Day activity at Clearfield High School was not so much to raise class funds, but rather to showcase their leadership skills. Students created announcements for the school paper and worked with Student Government to invite all CHS students to participate in lunch activities.

LAYTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

Northridge HS LIA students learned how to be leaders in their community through public service work. Students were encouraged to enroll in Concurrent Enrollment classes and take advantage of the Davis Tech discount for high school students.

CLOTHING DRIVE

Over the course of two weeks
LIA students at Central Davis Jr. collected over 1,400 articles of clothing from the school community and donated them to Ogden Rescue Mission on February 10th.

GOOSECHASE SERVICE PROJECT

Davis High LIA students split into teams to complete service tasks around the school: show gratitude to a person in the counseling office, pick up ten pieces of garbage, complete a random act of kindness, and clean ten window panes of glass.
